SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

Placer County Crime Stoppers is holding its annual recognition dinner on Friday, March 28, 2008, in Lincoln. This year, Crime Stoppers will honor members of the Placer County Law Enforcement Chaplaincy.

Citizens are invited to attend the steak and pasta dinner and to recognize these hard-working men and women. Doors open at 6 p.m. with a no-host bar and dinner begins at 7 p.m. Tickets are $15 per person. Placer County Sheriff Ed Bonner and Senior Chaplain Terry Morgan will take part in the evening's program.

Placer County Crime Stoppers is a non-profit group that works in cooperation with each law enforcement agency in the county to reduce crime. Board members are concerned citizens who work with law enforcement advisors. Through Placer County Crime Stoppers' toll-free phone number, 1-800-923-8191, callers can provide confidential information to law enforcement for cash rewards. All callers remain anonymous.

The Placer County Law Enforcement Chaplaincy is a field service ministry incorporated in 1986. It serves both the members of law enforcement and their families, and works through law enforcement to act as victims' advocates to the citizens of Placer County. The Chaplaincy continually provides the service of trained, critical incident chaplains on a 24-hour, seven-day-a-week basis, with both proactive and reactive responses. Chaplains serve a combination of 10 agencies at 14 locations including city, county, and state agencies.

The dinner is being held at the McBean Park Pavilion in Lincoln. For information or to purchase tickets, call (530) 889-6901.
